Dillon Clinches Pro Title as Ski-Doo Riders Close ISOC Snocross Season Strong in Duluth

Crayden Dillon, Ski-Doo pro rider, was flying high all weekend in Duluth, Minnesota, at the ISOC Snocross National.

- Crayden Dillon — Wins Friday, finishes second Saturday, captures Pro Championship
- Jordan Lebel — Second Friday, wins Saturday, finishes second in Pro Championship
- Victoria Dillon — Wins both races, finishes second in Pro AM Women Championship

Valcourt, Quebec, April 9, 2026 — Ski-Doo, iconic brand of BRP Inc. (TSX/NASDAQ: DOO), is proud to share that its racers closed the ISOC Snocross National season in commanding fashion this weekend in Duluth, Minnesota, delivering championship performances, race wins, and podium sweeps to cap a standout winter.

Crayden Dillon secured the biggest prize, the Pro Class Championship after a close, hard-fought victory on Friday night, followed by a solid qualifying effort and second-place finish on Saturday to lock up the title. Dillon, last year's Pro-Lite

Champion, was under constant pressure in the final rounds and delivered when it mattered most to claim the sport's top honor in his first season at the Pro level.

Jordan Lebel, Ski-Doo pro racer, claimed Saturday's win in dominant fashion at the Duluth Snocross National.

Saturday night belonged to Jordan Lebel, who turned in a dominant performance to capture the final Pro Class win of the season and secure second overall in the championship standings, closing the year with momentum and authority.

Victoria Dillion, Ski-Doo pro racer, took both Pro AM Women's wins at the ISOC National in Duluth

Momentum in Pro AM Women competition belonged to Victoria Dillon who capped an exceptional season with back-to-back wins in Duluth and second overall in the championship. Her weekend sweep underscored a season defined by consistency, speed, and championship-caliber execution.

A Podium sweep for Ski-Doo riders with Victoria Dillion, Naeli Lebel and Kendall Rose on Friday, at the ISOC Snocross National in Duluth, Minnesota.

Ski-Doo riders also delivered across the depth of the field. In Pro-Lite, Drew Freeland earned third overall in the championship, narrowly missing a Friday night win, while Kellen Chapuran captured a Saturday night podium. In the Sport class, Ski-Doo racers dominated, with Jimmy Stanisich, Kamden Duffy, and Justin Blazevic sweeping the championship standings. The weekend featured additional podium sweeps, highlighted by Friday night wins from Stanisich and a Saturday night victory by Tavin Knudson.

As the snow settles on the 2025–26 season, Ski-Doo exits Duluth with championships secured, momentum built, and a clear statement heading into next winter.
